

The Bidder's Conference you are attempting to enter is conducted in a State building. Pursuant to O.C.G.A. 50-16-14, be aware that law enforcement officers of the Department of Public Safety are authorized to deny entrance of any person into the building when the person's activities are intended to disrupt or interfere with the Bidder's Conference or the normal business operations conducted within the building; anyone displaying any sign, banner, placard, poster, or similar device can be denied entrance into the building; and the Department of Public Safety is also authorized to remove any person from the building when the person's activities interfere with or disrupt the normal business operations conducted therein. The room within which the Bidder's Conference is scheduled to be conducted has a capacity that is determined by the State Fire Marshal. Be aware that entrance may be denied if the room reaches full capacity.
